Guardians of Fort Kochi (mural)

Ten Fearless Ambassador artists painted this Coast Guard wall mural.

ADDRESS

ABOUT

The Guardians of Fort Kochi is a 200-metre mural on the compound wall of the Indian Coast Guard Office, on Calvathy Road. There is no entry fee and no closing time, so you can walk its length whenever you pass. Allow 15 to 20 minutes for the full wall. The wall was painted in open community sessions. Residents were invited to add their stories and labour to it. Coast Guard personnel, mangrove workers and fishing communities took part alongside the artists.
