Mutton chops, beef roast and parottas for breakfast.

ABOUT

Balan Chettan Kada is a small eating house on Pullupalam Road in Mattancherry, also known as Hotel City Star. It is open from 8am to 11pm every day. The place is known for mutton chaps and square porotta. Visitors mention the beef curry, served with puttu, idiyappam and porotta. One called it really delicious. Another found the porotta rubbery but said the gravy served with it was the best they had tasted. The tea gets praise, and a pazham pori did not meet expectations.
