ABOUT

Mocha Art Café is a café and art gallery in Jew Town, Mattancherry. The doorway is on Synagogue Lane and opens into a white gallery under a timber ceiling. It is open 10am to 8.30pm on weekdays, 9.30am to 9pm on Saturdays and 10am to 9pm on Sundays. The building dates to the 16th century and was built to house the rabbis of the Paradesi Synagogue. In 1910 a spice trader bought it and turned it into a warehouse. His grandson later converted it into an art café. To get in, you climb stairs.
