ADDRESS Synagogue Lane, Mattancherry

ABOUT

Synagogue Lane is a narrow lane in Mattancherry's Jew Town, lined with antique shops and leading to the Paradesi Synagogue. Galleries, cafés and old trading buildings share the lane with the shops. The Kadavumbhagam Mattancherry Synagogue stands on this lane, in Mattancherry, a locality of Kochi in the Ernakulam district. The Malabar Jews completed it in 1544, and it is among India's oldest synagogues. In 1955 its whole congregation emigrated to Israel, and the building was left in disuse.
