

LANDMARKS OR HISTORICAL BUILDINGS

Bastion Bungalow

Left standing when the British destroyed the fort walls in 1806.

ADDRESS Napier Street, Fort Kochi

ABOUT

Bastion Bungalow is a Dutch-era house on Napier Street in Fort Kochi, built on the curved wall of an old fort bastion. The Ernakulam District Heritage Museum fills the building and is open Tuesday to Sunday, shut on Mondays. Hours are 9am to 1pm and 2pm to 4.30pm. Maps, old documents and paintings trace the region's trade with Romans, Greeks, Jews, Chinese and Arabs. A reconstructed Dutch kitchen has a heavy oven and copper and brass pots. Mind the lunch break from 1pm to 2pm.

THE FULL PAGE

catsofkochi.com/places/bastion-bungalow

Opening hours, a map and 35 photographs.

Reading this on paper? Go to catsofkochi.com and search for Bastion Bungalow.

Join our WhatsApp Channel

KannanVM, 16 September 2018, via Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0. Map data © OpenStreetMap contributors.