Kumbalangi Bioluminescence Point

Watch for kavaru — the blue glow that appears on dark, moonless nights.

ADDRESS

ABOUT

Kumbalangi Bioluminescence Point (kavaru) is a waterside spot in Kumbalangi village where the backwater glows blue at night. Locals call the glow kavaru (sea sparkle / Noctiluca scintillans plankton). Glow reports from south-western Kumbalangi: Kallanchery, Anjilithara, Attathadom, Kulakkadavu. Peak season March–May (saltier backwaters); also Sep–Oct post-rains. Film Kumbalangi Nights features glowing water scene; glow seen 2020. No entry fee, open all hours.
